Resolution for AGM

Process for tie in council elections

To amend Standing Orders to advise that in the event of a tie in the election of Ordinary Members of the Council, there shall be a further vote by Members of the Council to decide the successful candidate. In the event of tie in the Council vote, the President shall have the casting vote.

*Note:

Ordinary Members of the Council are elected by a vote of Members and Fellows of the Faculty. There is currently no provision within Standing Orders for the event of a tie in the election.

FOR APPROVAL

We seek council approval to put forward this Resolution at the next AGM meeting on Thursday 19 November 2020
